Always pick up a container each on my way home.", "SentimentLabel":"positive", "SentimentScore":0.983313262462616}, {"Business Name":"Kawartha Dairy","Review":"If you haven't been to Kawartha Dairy, you are missing out! Hands down the best ice-cream that I have EVER had! The servers were friendly, the store seemed clean, and they had multiple flavours to chose from in which the scoops were massive! They also sell other items, such as milk, baked goods, maple syrup, etc. We also bought a few baked goods and it was amazing! I personally loved their Pecan tarts, they were delicious! Definitely recommend this place for ice-cream and baked goods!", "SentimentLabel":"positive", "SentimentScore":0.9776197671890259}, {"Business Name":"Kawartha Dairy","Review":"Have been there a couple times now, the ice cream is really good , from the kinds I've tasted. They aren't crazy with portion control either. They give you MASSIVE scoops. One of which broke my boyfriends cone( they gave us a new cone) and the time prior causing the entire scoop to fall out of my cone onto my hand. They have decent prices, and seem friendly. Both times I've gone in there has been big rushes, the first time was very hectic. The other being more controlled as they pulled people onto line. Will continue to be a go too spot !", "SentimentLabel":"positive", "SentimentScore":0.9090603590011597}, {"Business Name":"Kawartha Dairy","Review":"A little bit pricy, but very good and you get lots. I got a single scoop for about $4, which came with one huge scoop of ice cream. There is truly something for everyone here with the many great flavours that they offer. I come here frequently to buy tubs of moose tracks ice cream, and when the weather is nice I treat myself to a bowl or waffle cone.", "SentimentLabel":"positive", "SentimentScore":0.9624688625335693}, {"Business Name":"Kawartha Dairy","Review":"Hands down the best ice cream! Any flavour you're after, they've got it. Mint chocolate chip is a personal favourite. Great place to pickup fresh dairy milk, sour cream and cottage cheese while you're at it.
